

Title:

Laziness as Silent Evil.

Precis:

The author says that evils in this world are mostly due to laziness. He perceived Devil as the ~~er~~ most busiest creature in the Universe by saying that Devil will never allow anybody to do nothing in his kingdom. He assumed that world is in difficulty because a lot of energy is wasted due to their misdirection. He considered laziness as crime. He says politicians and even religious scholars are not pointing out this problem. They held conferences to find solution of evils/issues but they waste their time on un-important issues. They all be given a job of doing nothing.
