

Mock Exam 1 :

Section 1

1. Tourism in Pakistan: Challenges and Opportunities

Type of Essay → Expository Essay.

Brain storming:

Way forward / Remedies

- Digitalization
- Use of modern infrastructure
- New tourist sites should be explored
- Promotion of electronic and print media
- Promotion of soft image of Pakistan
- Need of a solid plan by tourist industry

Outlines :

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Hook statement
- 1.2 General Statement
- 1.3 Thesis Statement

Tourism, in the wake of 21st century and era of Globalization, is the new buzzword that has many opportunities for various sectors in Pakistan such as CPEC, an economic corridor for expanding tourism, natural beauty, cultural heritage, Religious pilgrims, mountaineering, sports, Roof of the world and historical sites. However, Pakistan is also facing certain challenges regarding tourism as infrastructure issue, law and order, terrorism, lack of exposure, Islamophobia, lack of medical facilities at tourist sites, media is biased and insufficient private sector investments. To improve tourism, Pakistan needs to focus on digitalization, use of modern infrastructure, new tourist sites should be explored, promotion of electronic and print media, promotion of soft image of Pakistan and need of a solid plan by the Tourist industry.

2. Opportunities for Tourists in Pakistan:

- 2.1 CPEC
- 2.2 Natural Beauty
- 2.3 Cultural Heritage
- 2.4 Religious Pilgrims
- 2.5 Mountaineering

2.6 Sports

2.7 Roof of the world

2.8 Historical sites

3. Challenges faced by Tourism in Pakistan:

3.1 Infrastructure issue

3.2 Terrorism

3.3 Law and order

3.4 Lack of exposure

3.5 Islamophobia

3.6 Lack of medical facilities at the tourist sites

3.7 media is biased

3.8. Insufficient private sector investments

4. Improvements or Remedies for tourism in Pakistan:

4.1 Digitalization

4.2 Use of modern infrastructure

4.3 New tourist sites should be explored

4.4 Promotion of electronic and print media

4.5 Promotion of soft image of Pakistan

4.6 Need of a solid plan by Tourist industry

5. Conclusion.

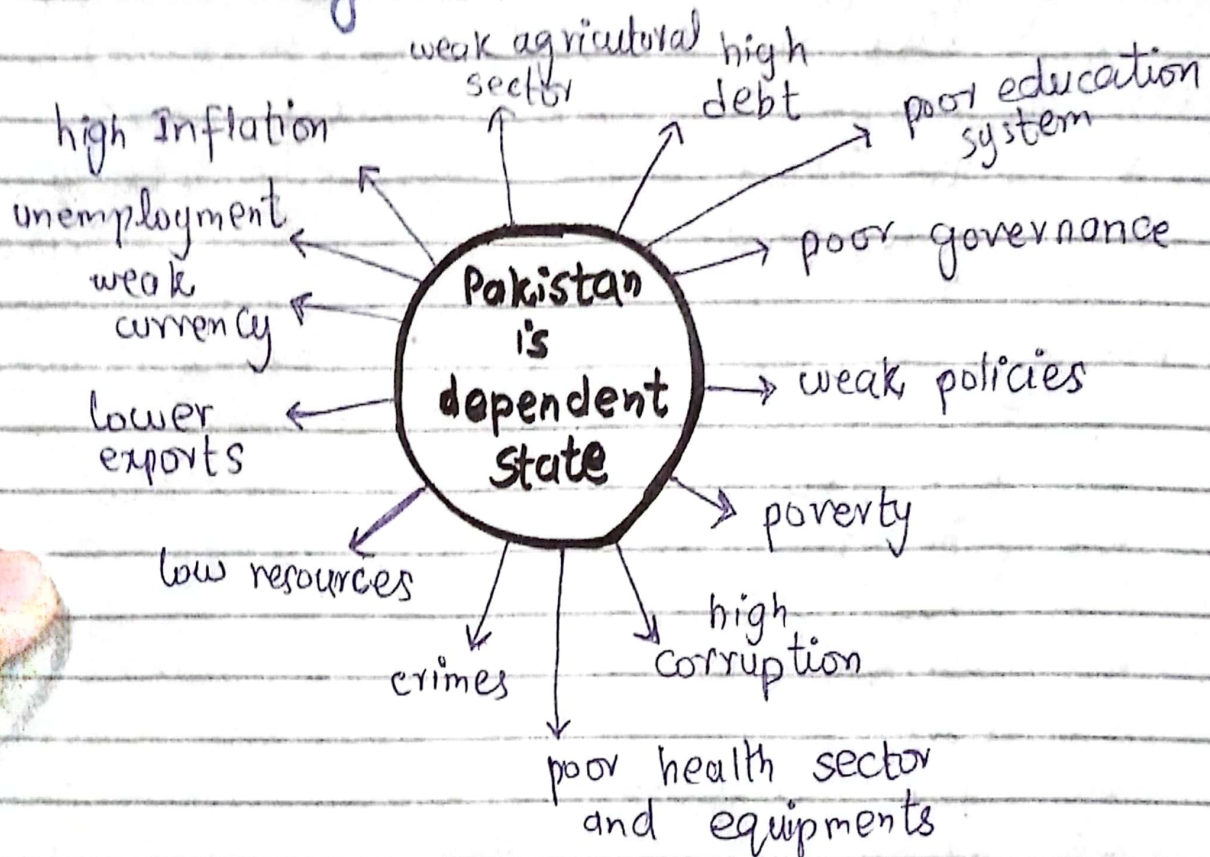

Section 2

1. "Is Pakistan truly an independent state"?

Type of essay → Argumentative essay.

Brainstorming:

Outlines:

1. Introduction

1.1 Hook Statement

1.2 General Statement

1.3 Thesis Statement

Despite being an independent state by saying that Pakistan has its own culture, religious freedom, language and government, Pakistan is still dependent on its former masters or other countries for high debt, poor education, poor governance, weak policies, poverty, corruption, poor health equipments, crimes, low resources, lower exports, weak / low currency, unemployment, high inflation and weak agricultural sector. To resolve these issues, Pakistan needs to improve exports, education system, pay off their debts, increase value of currency, strong agriculture sector, giving / providing jobs, make stronger policies, lower the corruption rate, increasing resources, high technology equipments for health sector and most importantly through strong governance.

2. Reasons for why Pakistan^a dependent State:

- 2.1 high debt
- 2.2 poor governance
- 2.3 weak policies
- 2.4 poor education system
- 2.5 poverty
- 2.6 high corruption
- 2.7 crimes
- 2.8 low resources
- 2.9 lower exports
- 2.10 weak currency
- 2.11 unemployment
- 2.12 high inflation
- 2.13 weak agricultural sector
- 2.14 poor health equipments.

3. Solutions for making Pakistan an independent country / state:

- 3.1 paying off debt
- 3.2 strong governance

- 3.3 making strong policies
- 3.4 stronger education system
- 3.5 lowering poverty
- 3.6 lowering corruption and give punishment to those who does it.
- 3.7 making resources higher
- 3.8 high exports
- 3.9 strong agricultural sector
- 3.10 strong currency
- 3.11 providing jobs
- 3.12 lowering inflation

4- Conclusion.

