

Topic: Benefits of urban green spaces

Points:-

Parks, filled with greenery, in any bustling city play a vital role in maintaining balance between urban development and environment preservation. These beautiful parks become hubs for community gatherings, events, and recreational activities. Urban green spaces improve air quality, weather conditions, and mental health of humans and wild life protection. The goal is to keep human progress and environmental protection in equilibrium.
