

Democratic Downfall in Pakistan: Causes and Solutions

Outline

1) Introduction

Thesis Statement Socio-economic challenges, weakened institutions, and military intervention in politics have led to the downfall of democracy in Pakistan. However, it can be revived through viable solutions.

2) Causes of Democratic downfall in Pakistan

a) Socio-economic challenges divert the attention of people from political participation

b) Weak political institutions have given way to authoritarianism

c) Geopolitical dynamics have put Pakistan in a peril situation

d) Military interventions in politics have weakened democracy

e) Corruption and Governance issues have destroyed the system.

3) Solutions to revive democracy in Pakistan

a) Combating proactively with corruption and ensuring good governance

b) Pursue a balanced foreign policy and neutrality

c) Ensuring independence of political institutions

d) Making military accountable to civilian government

e) Addressing socio-economic issues vigorously

4) Conclusion