Title : Teacher-Child Interaction

In modern era, it is consider good to not involve with children. And less value to thier company. If one has liking for children like pet, they accept your advice with little resistance. But if one tries to involve them for better future, they are not grateful for it. However, they show interest in selfless company. Such type of teacher have ability to interrupt in children freedom when it is necessary. Unluckly, over burden teacher do not have such type of selfless liking for children. Despite thier hard-work teacher face strict discipline which resultt in irritation. There is no role for naughty children if friencliness exist. At this time, one's take right decision, through it children feels good. Howere, kindness guide better than rules.
