

Outline of The Essay and Thesis Statement.

2- The far-reaching effects of Political Instability in Pakistan.

Introduction :-

"Whenever the people are well-informed, they can be trusted with their own government."

Since, Pakistan came into being in this world, it is facing the chronic disease of Political Instability that is hindering the foundation of Pakistan and stopping its development in this fast paced technological era. During all these passing years of Political instability Pakistan has under control of Dictatorship many times and always remain unexceptional situation.

Thesis Statement :-

Political instability in Pakistan is a major issue in development and growth at every level. It also give rise to mistrust in public and government relationship. Transparency among the institutions and accountability can help to overcome this problem and acceptance of every one rights.

Outline :-

1- Affects of Political Instability

1a- Economic growth :-

Ratio of import and export

Budget balance

Trade

Plans

Inflation

1b- Security challenges:

Terrorism

snatching and robbery.

1c- Governance :

Pressure on government

Failure or Difficulty in giving to Public.

Mistrust

1d- Ethnicity Issue :

communities starts movements and spread

Hate to others.

c.

1e- Threat to Democracy

military regime

No trust in democracy or government.

2- Causes And Solution of Political Instability

2a- High Tax on Trade

2b. Government becomes weak

Easy to target when government weakens

3b. Opposition gives tough time to government to deliver.

3b. Nation divides into ethnic groups because of bad management and focus of govt on is diverted.

2c. Space and differences among Political Parties.

3- Solutions of Political Instability :-

3a. Tax Free Trade and maintain good relations with ~~near~~ foreign countries to execute ^{successful} plans.

3b. Give ^{and space} time to government and also supports government to achieve goals.

3c. Opposition should remain less challenging to Government.

3d. Make institution strong and they should not interference to others domain instead focus on necessary goals.

3e. Fill up gap between Political Parties specially among the Government and the opposition.

Conclusion:

As the most rising issue in Pakistan is the Political instability. Because of instability there is a gap between the parties and government face challenges as mistrust spreads among people. This causes less development and growth of a Pakistan. This can be resolved by transparency among all institutions and the people of Pakistan as well.

4-

The necessity of, and resistance to, old homes, in our society.

Old Homes

Necessity

well being facilities

friends

activities

living alone

globalisation

Resistance

financial instability

hard jobs

pensions to elders.

strong family structure

Introduction:

"Love and respect old people because you are aging too."

Parents are someone who nurtures their children to the best they can provide and shape us what we are today.

While some strive for their happiness and comfort others find excuses to give them their affection and care, sending them to old age homes forcefully.

Thesis:

Today because of globalisation across the world humanity is suffering and there is a need to control this as.

every person at every age in life needs love, care and respect specifically children and old people.

Outline:-

1- Necessity:

1.1:- Facilities

1.1.1:- Medical facilities

Regular doctor visits

1.2:- Healthy Diet according to their personal need.

1.3:- Activities - Engage in healthy activities

1.4:- Friends of their particular age - Companionship

1.5:- Security and Safety

1.6:- Migration of children to urban cities or abroad for financial stability.

2- Resistance:

2.1(i) Limited choices.

2.1(ii) Movement across the community.

2.1(iii) Food and other necessities.

2.2:- Restore good family relations or eastern values.

2.3:- Financial stability

2.4:- Relaxed working environment who have elders in homes.

2.5:- Government should give pension to elders.

2.6:- Islamic Point of view - As a Muslim Nation.

2.7:- Etc

Conclusion:-

In this time people are focusing and admiring the technological era and this westernising approach should be changed to our eastern one in which humanity prevails. Old people have right to get love, care and respect from their relations so that they can live their remaining lives peacefully in their homes freely.