

Human Health is silent victim of Global Warming.

Outline:

1- Introduction:

Global warming disturbs the human health eternally. Physically and mentally human are becoming the victim because of different types of disease that are spread by global warming. Suitable measurements are required to protect the human health.

2- Effects of global warming on Human health

a- Heatstrokes and dehydration occurs due to high temperature

b- Malaria and dengue fever occur due to polluted water

c- Waterborne diseases like cholera and dysentery also occur because of flooding and rising the sea levels.

d- Respiratory disorder like asthma is happened because of wild fires.

e- Bronchitis is happened because of air pollution by the fossil fuels.

f- Weakening of eyesight or eyesight illness causes of ^{harmful} gases that present in atmosphere.

g- Why is ^{the} Global warming increasing day by day

a- loss of biodiversity

b- burning of fossil fuels

c- Flooding and rising of sea levels

d- Air pollution

e- Temperature changes

f- Polluted water

g- Deforestation

4- How we can save the human health from the bad impacts of Global warming.

- a- Enhance public health infrastructure
- b- Raising awareness and education on link between global warming and human health
- c- Promoting renewable energy sources.
- d- Planting the trees.
- e- Proper sewage and water supply system.
- f- By Reducing the burning of fossil fuels.

5- Conclusion.