

Date: ___/___/20

"Our World is in a Surplus of Multilateral Challenges and a Deficit of Solutions"

Outline:

1. Surplus of Multilateral challenges Being Faced by World:

- a. Climate change
- b. Population Explosion
- c. Inter-state and Intra-state conflicts
- d. Scarced Resources
- e. Refugee Crisis
- f. Water Scarcity
- g. Poverty and Hunger

2. Factors Responsible to Accelerate the Multilateral challenges:

- a. Over exploitation of resources
- b. Excessive use of fossil fuels
- c. Biasedness of superpowers
- d. Blind race in the realm of technology and AI
- e. States struggling for 'Maximization of power'

3. Reasons for Deficit of Solutions:

- a. Weak influence of International Organizations
- b. States in conflict reluctant to step back
- c. Hesitancy of states to switch to renewable energy resources
- d. Global North vs. Global South competition

e. Uprising of violent non-state Actors

4. Wayforward:

a. Cooperation among states

b. Check and balance on use of resources

c. Strengthening the influence of international organizations

d. Designing and implementing population control policies

e. Equal opportunities of education and health for all regardless of gender

f. Collective efforts of states to counter terrorism