Title: Children's Freedom and Role of Education

~~On freedom in ed~~

There are three main schools of thought on freedom in education. Absolute freedom is guaranteed to children is ~~one~~' perspective of one school. As per another school, children work under some authority. The third school considers kindness ~~import~~ as an important trait inspite of freedom. The intrinsic motivation plays a vital role in children growth. The author does not endorse this school because this is the trait of an ideal world. One's freedom depends on trained and learned methods. For the moral and mental growth of children, the role of ~~know~~ education is considerable.
