

Topic: Cost of inaction is greater than the cost of action

1. Introduction

It is evident within the chronicles of history of mankind that being meek and tolerant without having the ability to fly in the face of injustice merely makes you more vulnerable. It can be observed in the life of an individual, a female, minorities of a state and even within the remaining ashes of several nations.

2. The price paid by the rage of silence is deafening.

3. How burdening the price of inaction is for an individual?

- a) Not having the strength to stand up to bullies makes you an easy target
- b) Silently enduring toxic relationships/ friendships traps you in a loophole.
- c) If oppressing someone is a sin, then being oppressed by someone is also a sin
- d) Our silence grants others permission to define our choices
- e) ~~Our~~ Burden of inaction paid in the form of exploitation

4. Forms of price of inaction paid by females of our society.

- a) Enduring the poison of toxic masculinity in the name of love.
- b) Silently tolerate domestic violence
- c) Remaining delusional and silent even after experiencing harassment in different zones of life
- d) Acid attack, an aftermath of not taking any action against the one who harassed you
- e) Bearing the burden of dowry system ingrained with-in our culture
- d) Price of silence paid by being butchered in the name of ~~the~~ honour killings.

5. Cost of inaction paid by a states and world.

- a) cycle of violation of minority ^{ty} rights and oppression witnessed in the history of Pakistan.
- b) What we witnessed in the history of East Pakistan is now being repeated in Balochistan
- c) Holocaust now being ~~repeated~~ repeated in Palestine in the form of genocide
- d) How Iran and Iraq suffered as a result of non-intervention policy adopted by the muslim world.

e) seeds of Islamophobia sprouting as a result of others ~~is~~ defining our silence.

6. Conclusion.