

Cross Border Assassinations

Pakistan, which is already under the threat of domestic and regional terrorism, now has to wrap the protective shields against Modi's India. Although, India is used to ~~secretly~~ ^{secretly} demolishing the sovereignty of neighbour countries, as the 2016 Kalbhushan Inadav case highlights the fact. Now, BJP government clearly announces it that, "If militants run away to Pakistan, we will enter Pakistan to kill them". Recently, in 2023, two people belonging to Kashmir's freedom fighting organization were killed on Pakistan's soil by Indian agencies. As a matter of fact, India struggles for the silence of voices raised for self determination. Along with this, Pakistan slams its rival in United Nations for financially supporting terrorist groups in Pakistan. These acts by arch rivals, pay hindrances to economic and socio-political uprise of the green land, Thus, needs to be combatted.
