

Tolerance is the only way to a peaceful society

(A) Introduction

Tolerance promotes the mutual co-existence, respect and peace in the society. Tolerance is very imperative to avoid conflicts and wars on societal, national and international levels. Tolerance could be promoted with the help of educational awareness, economic and political stability and enhanced individual relationships.

(B) How tolerance leads towards the peaceful society?

(C) Tolerance is the only way to a peaceful society

(a) Tolerance aids to maintain the good relationships among the individuals of society.

Case in point: Example of tolerance from the life of Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H)

(b) Tolerance is imperative for the existence of multicultural society

Case in point: Societies like Pakistan

Date: _____

MTWTFSS

which is a multi-cultural society needs tolerance for well being of individuals.

(c) Religious tolerance helps society to peacefully co-exist

Case in point: Conflicts in India on the basis of religion

(d) Tolerance promotes mutual respects and well-being among people

Case in point: Singapore is the best example where tolerance is the key to mutual respect

(e) Tolerance abets democracy to flourish

Case in point: How democracies die? by Steven Levitsky and Daniel Ziblatt

(f) Tolerance removes the conflicts from the society

Case in point: Nelson Mandela's peaceful way handled the situation in Africa

(g) Tolerance helps to build the smooth relations among different states

Case in point: Formation of UN after World War 2 promoted peace among countries.

(h) Tolerance is the great way to remove extremism

Case in point: Malaysia is the best example where tolerance helped to remove extremism.

(i) Tolerance promotes dialogue and table talk and averts wars

Case in point: The reconciliation process between France and Germany after WWII, which laid the foundation of the European Union.

(j) Tolerant societies attract investment and economic growth

Case in point: China demanded peace in Pakistan for further investment, according to report of DW.

(k) Ways to promote tolerance for the peaceful society

(a) Promotion of education in society could promote tolerance in society

(b) Economic and political stability enhance the sense of belongingness and tolerance.

Date: _____

M T W T F S

(C) Enhanced individual relationships are necessary to promote tolerance

(E) Conclusion;

Essay

Tolerance promotes the mutual co-existence, respect, and peace in the society.

Tolerance is very imperative to avoid conflicts and wars on societal, national and international levels. Tolerance could be promoted with the help of educational awareness, economic and political stability and enhanced individual relationships. Tolerance has never provoked a civil war; intolerance has covered the earth with carnage (Voltaire). Tolerance leads towards the peaceful society because tolerance is cardinal to maintain the good relationships among the societies.

It is important for the existence of multicultural societies and it promotes religious forbearance in the society. Tolerance abets democracy to flourish and it removes conflicts from the societies. It is also important to build smooth relationships among different states. It is the only way to remove extremism from the society. It promotes mutual respect and well being in the society. Tolerance promotes dialogue and helps to avert the wars. It is the great way to attract economic growth and investment for the state. Tolerance could be promoted by many ways like promotion of education. could be helpful in the promotion of tolerance. Economic and political stability enhance the sense of belongingness and tolerance in societies. Enhanced individual relationships are also necessary to promote tolerance.

Tolerance is not just about tolerating the things, it is also about the mutual respect and sense of belongingness. Tolerance is the only way for a peaceful society. It urges people to maintain healthy relations with each other because it can promote the peace in the society. There are many examples in the world, which can be related to tolerance and promotion of peace through it. It helps people to peacefully co-exist in the society. It is important to remove the conflicts from society. Tolerance is necessary to create forbearance in the society. Tolerance is the highest kind of policy adopted by countries for the smooth relationship with other states. It could be promoted with the help of education and economic as well as political stability. Promotion of peace is only possible with the promotion of tolerance in the society.

Date: _____

Tolerance aids to maintain the good relationships among the individuals of society. The harmony among the people is only possible, if the people of the society are tolerant. Life of Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H) is filled with the example of tolerance. The incident of Taif indicates that the tolerance of Prophet (P.B.U.H) led the people of Taif towards Islam. On the other hand people of Makkah and their tactics to harm Prophet (P.B.U.H) were failed because of the tolerance of Prophet (P.B.U.H). It is clear clear that tolerance is the only way towards the peaceful society because without tolerance a society can not peacefully exist in the world. Tolerance helps individuals to take care of the others. It bids people to make their relationship better.

Tolerance is imperative for the existence of multi-cultural society. There are many issues in multi-cultural society which appear in society due to lack of tolerance. A multicultural society consists of people of different culture, language and religion, so it is cardinal for multicultural society to promote peace. Pakistan has a multi-cultural society which consists of Punjabi, Sindhi, Balochi and Pathan. It also consists of Muslims, Christians and Hindus. Tolerance is the only way which has helped Pakistan to peacefully exist. It is necessary for the well being of the society. It could be seen that it is impossible for multicultural societies to exist without tolerance.

Date: _____

It is cardinal for a society to make sure the religious tolerance to peacefully co-exist. Conflicts in India on the basis of religion is serious due to the lack of tolerance. Muslims and Sikhs are facing religious intolerance in India. After the anti-Muslim government of Modi, it became difficult for Muslims to live peacefully in India. It is all happening due to the intolerance ~~and~~ for the other religions. Tolerance is the key to peace. Tolerance is necessary for the individuals who belong to different religions to peacefully exist in the society. Tolerance remove hatred from the minds of individual. ~~About this~~ It is imperative to have religious tolerance in the society.

Tolerance promotes mutual respect and well-being among people. People who are filled with tolerance, let other individual live peacefully and it helps to increase the respect factor among individuals of the Society. Singapore is the best example of a society which has promoted respect with help of tolerance. There are different people of race, creed, colour and religion living in Singapore and they still peacefully co-exist and promote mutual respect and well-being. Tolerance is also about respecting others point of view as well as their situations. Tolerance help people not to judge others on the basis of their colour, appearance and religion. It helps to respect other person's thoughts. It promotes well-being of the individual.

Tolerance abets democracy to flourish in a state. According to Steven Levitsky and Daniel Ziblatt in their writing "How Democracies Die?", the main feature of democracy is tolerance. It is a norm of democracy to accept the legitimacy of opposition and it could only be possible with the help of tolerance. Democracy is considered as the best form of government and it is the norm of the democracy to tolerate the opposition's point of view. Tolerance is important for the democracy.

Tolerance removes the conflicts from the society. It helps societies to solve their conflicts peacefully. Nelson Mandela is the living example of removal of conflicts through peaceful protests and tolerance. Nelson Mandela's peaceful way handled the situation of Africa. Tolerance never urges the conflicts, instead it helps to sort out them.

Tolerance is the only way to removal of conflicts. It helps to build peaceful policies about conflicts. Tolerance never provoked conflicts, instead it is the best policy for the solution of issues.

Tolerance helps to build the smooth relationship among different states. In this century, a little mistake can instigate a war among states but tolerance helps to avoid issues and conflicts among states. It promotes healthy relationships. The end of World War 2 only happened due to the peaceful formation of UN. United Nations has tried the role of peace making body. It has promoted peace which became possible because of the policy of co-existence and tolerance.

Tolerance is the best way to promote healthy and smooth relationship among countries with different religion, policies and people.

Tolerance is the great way to remove extremism. In the 21st century people have faced extremism on the basis of religion, race and creed. Tolerance is the way to remove extremism. The example of Malaysia makes it clear that tolerance in religion, colour and creed could remove and abnegate the extremism from the society. The promotion of peace and mutual respect is only possible, if extremism will be removed and tolerance is the best way to abnegate extremism. Extremism is the biggest threat for a society and tolerance is cardinal to curtail it.

Date: _____

Tolerance motivates peaceful dialogues and averts wars. Tolerance never brings wars. Instead, it is only way to peaceful society. The reconciliation process between France and Germany after WWII, which laid the foundation of European Union. Instead of urging war, tolerance is helpful for peaceful dialogues. Tolerance helps a society to avoid war and it promotes peace which is very necessary for a society and its individuals.

This century is the century of diplomacy and tolerance is the only way to it. It motivates governments to avoid war and collects them on a table for peaceful dialogue, which is very important for the economic and political stability of a state.

Date: _____

Tolerance attracts investment and economic growth. According to DW, China has demanded peace and security for further investment and peace is only possible, if there would be tolerance in society on the basis of religion, race, colour and creed. 21st century is related to the economic hegemony and economic growth could only be possible, if there would be tolerance and peace in the society. Tolerance is cardinal for the attraction of investors in the state.

Tolerance could be promoted to promote peace. Tolerance is possible with the help of educational awareness. Helen Keller stated that highest reward of education is tolerance. An educated society promotes tolerance. Tolerance is imperative for peace and education gives the message of tolerance. Every society could educate its individuals to promote tolerance because it is the only way towards the peace and progress.

Economic and political stability enhance the sense of belongingness and tolerance in the society. Crippling economy and political instability make people of state desperate which causes instability in the society. So it is imperative to ensure the economic and political stability in country or society to promote tolerance which is the only way towards the peaceful society and co-existence. It enhances the sense of belongingness and respect among individuals.

Enhanced mutual relationship among individuals are necessary for the promotion of tolerance.
There should be good mutual relationship so that people could easily relate to each other and it also promotes mutual forbearance. It also promotes

Date: _____

M T W T F S

awareness among people to help each other and tolerance is the only way which could reach people to live peacefully with each other.

In a nutshell, it could be seen that how imperative tolerance is, to exist peacefully. Tolerance leads towards the peaceful society which promotes mutual relationships. Tolerance not only helps on societal level but it is also helpful on national and international level. It not only promotes peace but it also promotes mutual respect and forbearance. It is the key towards the smooth working of institutions and States. It is the best way to promote economy and political stability. In other words, it could be stated the tolerance is the key to the successful society in every means.