India attacked Pakistan on 6TH September, 1965 during night time without any warning. This was a coward gesture. The main reason of conflict is India's illegal occupation on Kashmir. Kashmiris revolted against India's illegal occupation. India clearly announced in United Nation 1985 session that he will abide by UN Kashmir resolution and Kashmiris would not be deprived of from right of self determination. But with passing time, India star went back on with one after another excuses. When tribal areas pathans supported Kashmiris and India was shocked on his repeated defeats and Pakistan was held responsible for this insurgence. He was having a misconception that he would be ^{able to} cross the canal between India and Pakistan to attack on Lahore during night. But, he faced a crushing defeat. Pakistani soldiers showed bravery which would be written with golden words in history and Indian army will remember. This was continued for seventeen days. India ~~felt~~ was ashamed on its false aims.
