

The social crimes in Karachi have been unstoppable. The president ordered the chief minister to start a massive crackdown on criminals. A list of little gains was presented in figure; accomplished by special forces. The street crimes dropped to 166.2 from 252.32 daily in three months; and 49 lives lost in 48 incidents as a consequence 43 were imprisoned and 12 police confront – that have disputed implication. The Sindh government tries to manage it with superficial polish. The aforesaid action based on detail assessment to know reasons and problems to organize aggressive watch over. Thus, a Long-term solution for socioeconomic and law enforcement challenges demand diverse strategies among the law enforcers. Additionally, crackdown on the drug mafia often in nexus with notable figures in different cities. Katcha belt has been neglected; thus under developed. Some people benefit from heinous crimes. Developing work might threaten their profit so they use poor to live through unlawful means. Lastly healing techniques crushed offences