

Paragraph

My last day at college was memorable due to several reasons. Firstly, my teachers guided me about future career courses. From these courses, I pledged to make a career in BS Computer Science. Secondly, my last day at college was memorable because we enjoyed a dinner party that had been arranged by college administration. Thirdly, it was a memorable day because we took a lot of photos with others with whom we had spent our college time. Thus, my last day at college was memorable because I had enjoyed various things that had left an indelible mark in my memory.
