

Iran - Pakistan Conflict

On Tuesday, 16 January, 2024 around 6pm, Iran attacks in Pakistan. An Iranian air strike targeted Sabz Koh (Green Mountains), a remote area of Balochistan Punjgur district. In this attack two childrens were passed away and three girls were injured according to dawn newspaper (Pakistani). Iranian-based Tasnim News Agency reported that the operation was targeted to anti-iranian militant group Jaish-ul-Adl and it was successfull without any harm of pakistani people. After that Pakistan security forces re-attack on Iran with in 48 hours, night between January 17 and 18. Pakistan describes that the attack was against terrorist hideouts in Siestan-o-Baluchistan province of Iran. Pakistan named this attack "Marg Bar Sarmachar".

A day earlier, Pakistan decided to recall its ambassador from Iran and Iranian ambassador to Pakistan. After this conflict Pak-Iran Foreign Ministers talk to each other by phone to resolve this issues because Pak-Iran is bordering country and friend also. So this is important to solve this issue. After conducting some meeting Pak-Iran issue was solved and decided to re-open their ambassies to makes good relation.