In the early epoch of Islamic society, there was the initial concept of tolerance to be given priority. Islam gave rise to the value of tolerance in society. Moreover, Holy prophet (PBUH) used to like a habit of tolerance. He also said that tolerance is a common antibiotic of all diseases in society. When the practice of tolerance amid of people, all the problems and shortcomings will be wiped out of society. That moral standard of tolerance comes the praise in Quran many times. Although it still exists in society. It minimizes the polarization in society through consensus. Growing the ethical values and political integration are turned with tolerance. Furthermore, promoting Islamic teachings and rule of law in society are feasible by practicing of tolerance. Youth learning and social gathering is inclined to tolerance. Peaceful

Progress in Society in term of education and religious values are supposed to the strong practice of the Tolerance. Hence, Tolerance is an ultimate way forward of social, moral, political and environmental evils. By pragmatic acceptance of tolerance in society, society becomes ideal and utopian and breaks away all the crimes and conflicts.

In short, tolerance plays a larger role in order to keep the society peaceful. It brings about the social change and freedom in society. Moreover, tolerance upholds social, political and economic consensus amid people and decision makers. Progress and build-measures are obliged to firm level of tolerance. Mostly, in modern society, youth do not meet up the demand of tolerance and its practice in society. But it is a frontside of youth's improvement and enhancement. Rule of law and accountability relies on the tolerance when it is implemented in society for sustaining peace in the societal level. Society aspires for unity and integration in shape of peace which is only possible through tolerance. It is a door of happiness and prosperity.
