

main idea is picked but neither the sentences are complete in meaning nor the sentence structure is correct

0/20 precis of what??? where is the ref or main passage??

not satisfactory incorrect interpretation of the main passage

Precise:.

Psychological Causes: Unhappiness

There are numerous of psychological reasons, but unhappiness is most common. Typically unhappy man who has not enjoyed their achievements, always focused on unachieved target. <sup>misdirection</sup> most common problem in present day. <sup>which</sup> Cause unsatisfaction. <sup>on the other side</sup> narcissists and megalomaniac are types of unhappiness which is afflicting hopeless in man. However, some people are deliberately choosing unhappiness. But these are few in number mostly <sup>And</sup> to the way of happiness. Likely, those who has been exercised in easy life, but at end he realize that he has nothing to do which cause hopelessness in them. instead of losing hope. they believed that happiness is most desirable and possible.

sentence is too long and makes no sense at all

Total word, 385
Precise word, 185