

IPI project:-

Iran has 12,000 cubic feet reserves of natural gas about 12,000 cubic feet, enough to last 162 years. Its neighbouring country Pakistan has 18ty, enough for the next 12-15 years. Indian offshore natural gas reserves are to the west (23.75) and to its east (40.61). (It made sense for India to look westwards.)

In 1995 both three countries ~~made~~ signed an (project) Agreement which ^{made} Iran responsible for 1180 km of the IPI pipeline, Pakistan 705 km and India 850 km. The pricing of the product had been agreed to 4.937 dollar per MBTU, linked to the Japanese ^{crude} Cocktail price

Focus on choice of words
Improve sentence structure by writing
short and simple sentences

In 2008, India signed two projects with US ^{of} nuclear energy and ^{military} cooperation. And, India withdrew ~~his~~ agreement with Iran. Logically, to ensure ^{continuously} supply of all the ~~of~~ three countries jointly owned the project, through an corporate entity outside of these countries, with ^{legal} safeguards in place to prevent any of their member ~~being~~ from ~~on~~ the obligation.

Since the, Iranian ~~undeterred~~ completed (its) 1172 km of ^{their} ~~an~~ truncated pipeline from South pars gas field to Pak-Iran border. Pakistan has yet to begin its section. The price was estimated (at ^{that} time) at 1.8 ^{dollars} billion in 2012. Now, its new price is open to heavens.

This year Pakistan's ~~Prime~~ government approved the construction of a token to Gawadar, ~~with~~ ^{because of} the fear of penalties for the ~~delay~~. Iran has granted Pakistan until September 2024 to complete the remaining 625 km.