

Dubai leaks

for Grammar

Check

dubai leaks has exposed a harsh reality that pakistani owns more than 12 billion property in uae

As per record ^{data} Pakistan ^{pakistani} owned 12 billion worth of properties in Dubai. ~~(some 12 billion in property owned by Pakistanis etc)~~ According to FBR chairman shabbaz the actual value close to, or possibly in excess of 20 bn. ^{one should} ^{↑ bear} in mind ^{there are some prominent and some not prominent} that ^{all} these are prominent and many be not-so-prominent who happen to be ^{clearly} ^{competitively} resident or partially resident ^{and} ^{were not mentioned in the list} not mentioned on the list. Many of them own property not in their names but with the names of their relatives

There's no better example ^{of this} [↑] than the ^{do not use punctuation in excess} of SP Rao Anwar ~~himself~~ who ~~despite~~ having salary of some Rs 95,000, has managed to get give properties to his wife, and two of ~~them~~ jointly owned by their son. One ~~must~~ ~~of~~ ~~course~~ ~~approve~~ this family man.

Moreover, we have ~~another~~ example of ~~the~~ best Pakistani illegal kidney transplant (surgeon) specialist. who has nine properties in Dubai. Last Another is it something positive that you are writing 2222

inspiration is Flamid sammo, who is listed as a driver, got two properties in Dubai. He ~~probably~~ drives ^{so} darn well that he can afford a property in Dubai.

~~we are living in the country~~ with ~~poor economy~~ rich elites. Public expect, ^{this is a country where elite rules the roost.} FBK chairman should look after these elite class (people) ^{They} ~~whose~~ owned 1.9 billion + properties outside of the country to make them ^{safe} safe from ~~the~~ taxes. There is no accountability in the country, ~~that~~ is the reason ~~rich are becoming~~ ~~richer~~ and poor are becoming more poorer. ^{the rich are getting richer} Poor public are facing the consequences of their wealthy pr. lifestyle. How can ^{pls attempt some translation with proper subject verb and object} someone ~~except~~ their rights from the Government, when the ^{so called} ~~Government~~ leaders of the country are also on the top of the list.

There is no hope, but still hope for the best.