

Human Health is silent victim of Global Warming.

Outline:

1- Introduction:

Global warming disturbs the human health ~~eternity~~. Physically and mentally human are becoming the victim because of different types of diseases ~~that~~ ^{are} spread by ~~measures~~ ^{measures} Global warming. Suitable ~~measurements~~ are required to protect the human health.

2- Effects of global warming on Human health

a- Heatstrokes and dehydration occurs due to high temperature ✓

b- Malaria and dengue fever occur due to polluted water ✓

c. Waterborne diseases like cholera and dysentery also occur because of flooding and rising ^{of} the sea levels.

d. Respiratory disorder like asthma ^{also} happens because of wild fires.

e. Bronchitis happens because of air pollution by the fossil fuels.

f. Weakening of eyesight or eyesight illness ^{are} harmful causes of gases that present in atmosphere.

g. Why is ^{the} Global warming increasing day by day

- a. loss of biodiversity
- b. burning of fossil fuels
- c. Flooding and rising of sea levels
- d. Air pollution
- e. Temperature changes
- f. Polluted water
- g. Deforestation

Unnecessary details

4- How we can save the human health from the bad impacts of Global warming.

- a- Enhance public health infrastructure
- b- Raising awareness and education on link between global warming and human health
- c- Promoting renewable energy sources.
- d- Planting the trees.
- e- Proper sewage and water supply system.
- f- By reducing the burning of fossil fuels.

5- Conclusion.

Keep writing to minimize the mistakes