Iran and Israel Tension

The escalating tensions between them may lead to the war. Iran's drone attack on the sovereign territory of Israel was the direct response of attacking on its embassy in Damascus. UNSC meeting was held to defuse the tension between them. However, Iran did not accept Israel as a state. Both of them were engaged in many wars, within the country or outside without being in direct confrontation. UN Secretary General stated that, they both are on the brink of war, which may disturb the peace of world. He called for the immediate ceasefire in Gaza. Additionally, Israel blames the Iran for illegal funding of weapons. To the Hamas, obviously, Iran is behind the Gaza's incident and must be called in International court of Justice. Iran's retaliation on Israel was a defense since, that Israel must have consideration without being further indulged into the Iranian affairs.
