

Importance of English

English is an international language. It is widely spoken in different countries of the world. It is spoken by ^{around the globe} ~~estimated~~ 1.46 billion people ^{around the world} ~~the world~~. It is used to ^{it is used for communication} ~~communicate~~ from one nation to another. ~~It keeps importance because it is utilized to convey information to different countries regarding environmental protection, disaster management, etc.~~ In modern era, English is superior ^{to} ~~than~~ other languages because internet operates ^{all online operations are done through this} ~~on the basis of~~ English language. So, if any person wants to use Internet for the purpose of working or entertainment, he must be able to know and understand English language. ~~Similarly, English is necessary to get education, because modern reading material is based upon English language. Education is compulsory for the development of country; English is mandatory to gain knowledge and education. Youth should learn English language because it is required to fulfill their goals in the life. It is need of the hour to learn English language, as English is used in different departments, sectors and organizations of the world. The government of every country should realize to make English language as an official language. The developing countries, like Pakistan, should give importance to English for the prosperity and advancement of people and country.~~