

History as a guiding light for future

there is no ref of the main passage
always give ref or upload the main passage
basics need improvement
6/20

In history of mankind, there is a strange kind of methodology when it comes to studying the relationship between past and present. Those who view past through utopian point without any critical outlook always ends up with failure. Meanwhile, ~~on the other hand~~, the people who regard past as a guiding light and analyze it realistically, always seem to win. Because these people tend to avoid the mistakes that were done by earlier ones and adopt the ways which contributed to their rise.

Total words:

240

words written:

80-85

==

2020

sentences are too long and incorrect structure
need improvement in basic grammar 6/20

Myths and Realities of Poverty

OR An unexplored side of Poverty

People always complain about poverty as a great source of social issue. But, according to author, poverty is not what it seems as poor man is living a more contentful life because his family members are free from all social insecurities and they are united on a single cause of supporting their family. In single sentence on 8 lines???

contrast, rich is always surrounded by luxuries of life. ~~So~~ Because of all these reasons, poverty is a breeding ground of popular and dependable men, and to abolish poverty is like destroying a chance of leading mankind towards high ranks of civilization.

Total words: 275

words written: 90-95