

Topic:
"United we stand divided we fall."

Introduction.

"A house divided ~~itself~~ against itself cannot stand" Abraham Lincoln.

The above famous phrase echoes this sentiment that, how much important the unity and cooperation is to survive beautifully. Throughout history, everyone ~~has~~ ^{has observed time and again that} seen time to time again that, when one works together towards ~~a common~~ ^{For achievement of a goal} goal, it becomes unstoppable. On the other hand, when individuals are divided, it seems ~~they~~ are likely moving toward destruction. Throughout the ages/history, this phrase has been aptly demonstrated in various contexts which includes politics, sports, religion, social movements, wars, philosophy, economy and spirituality. However, its significance cannot be overstated.

The phrase "United we stand divided we ~~fall~~ is a timeless adage that has been proven true in the realm of politics. The political movements, parties and nations have risen and fallen based on their ability to unity or divide. One notable example is the American civil war. The Union's victory over the confederacy is largely due to their unity and determination, while the confederacy's divisions and internal faultlines have pushed them towards downfall. Moreover another example is the rise and fall of soviet union. Its initial success was due to their unity under the banner of communism. However, an internal weaknesses arose, the soviet union has slowly began to collapsed. Therefore, it proves that unity can conquer the world.

Good appropriate example
U are better writer
U can be best and competitive writer by focusing on
Ur readings and Ur practicing writings daily

In the world of sports the phrase 'united we stand divide we fall' is equally relevant. For instance, in a football team if the players are divided and do not work together, they will lose. Whereas, if they will unite under a common mindset they can achieve greatness. So to say a united team is more powerful/successful than a divided one.

Try not to present supposition
But write real examples

The phrase "united we stand divided we fall" is a ^{Wonderful here} universal truth that transcends the boundaries of faith and culture. Religion traditions also emphasize the importance of unity and co-operation among believers. Moreover, in christianity the Bible teaches "If a house is divided against itself that house cannot stand". This verse highlights the importance of unity in believers. In the Holy Quran Allah says "And hold firmly to the rope of Allah all together and do not become divided". This phrase is a universal truth that resonates with the people of faith. In addition to this, in a history of Islamic warfare, there is a notable example of unity. In the battle of Badr commanded by Holy Prophet has defeated pagans army which were double in quantity as compare to the muslim army. ~~conversely~~ conversely, the divisions and ~~fightings~~ fightings among the muslims armies during the First Fitna led to their defeat and the eventual assassination of the caliph Ali (A.R.A). Hence, without unity, existence in a peaceful atmosphere is a distant dream.

The phrase "United we stand divided we fall" can be connected with the themes of social movements. The civil rights movement in the USA, where African Americans were struggling ~~to~~ to achieve significant progress under the leadership of Martin Luther King and Rosa Parks. Through non-violent protest. they were able to bring change. Had they been divided, their voices would have been drowned out and their progress would have been hindered. In addition to this, there is a prominent example of unity which one can witness in American revolution. The thirteen American colonies were able to defeat the mighty British empire only because they united under a common cause.

The phrase "United we stand divided we fall" is a philosophical truth that resonates deeply in the human experience. From the concept of Aristotle (Human flourishing = Eudaimonia) to the concept of Immanuel Kant (kingdom of ends) both have emphasized the importance of community and unity in achieving happiness. They argued that humans are social creatures and their well-being is ultimately tied to the well-being of others.

No headings in writings

Conclusion

Therefore, man could live / survive without charming eyes, spreaded arms and special boots, but it cannot live without unity, because, without it a peaceful life will be a great illusion for him. As Holy prophet told the importance of unity, he said, "The believers in their mutual love, mercy and compassionate are like a body; if one part of it is afflicted, the whole body responds with sleeplessness and fever".

Allah the best luck