

My aim in life.
It was a happy day of Eid-ul-Fitr, when I was born. While experiencing life, ~~and~~ accepting many challenges and facing more critical situations, I decided that life needs a soul purpose to spend

~~spent~~ Similarly, once ~~when~~ I was watching tv channel a report was screened by the UNICEF that states, "an estimated 153 million children worldwide are orphans." fell

I ~~was~~ deeply ~~fallen~~ into disappointment that how these children will live ~~and~~ without their parents. On that moment, I promised ~~to~~ myself to establish an organisation, which will provide a well nourished atmosphere to these homeless children.

To accomplish this dream, I have decided a career through which I can easily have an access to run this organisation. For that, I have decided / chosen that I will undergo ~~through~~ many competitive examinations. After passing ~~in~~ these examinations, a person have healthy public relations which ~~will~~ help him to collect welfare funds and charity to run the organisation smoothly. Therefore, it is a famous saying that, "to feed a hungry is more sacred than to perform pilgrimage".
