

"Co-education ; Merits and Demerits"

Thesis Statement :-

Co-education is prevailing form of schooling which provides benefits such as enhancing skills for healthy competition and disadvantages including behavioral issues and gender discrimination. Efficient reforms are needed to improve its role in national progress.

1) Introduction

2) Co-education is becoming the dominant form of schooling ;

2.1) Co-education has contributed to country's development but also sent humanity to darker side

2.2) Future of co-education will provide more opportunities

a) emphasis on gender equality

b) technology and online learning integration

3) Co-education acts as a double-edged sword

- a) promotes gender equality
- b) prepares students for real-world challenges
- c) encourages healthy competition
- d) improves social skills
- e) contributes to social progress
- f) increases opportunities for peer pressure
- g) unequal participation in class and extra-curriculars
- h) behavioral issues and disruptions
- i) gender-based competition
- j) social and cultural resistance

3-1) Current situation of co-education

3-2) Why there is need to address future challenges of co-education?

4) Co-education system of Finland; a best example to be followed

5) Pakistan can also follow the same strategy of co-education

6) Other recommendations

- a) promoting gender equality in the curriculum
- b) encouraging inclusive teaching practices
- c) providing mentorship programs
- d) supporting mental and social well-being

7) Conclusion