Title: Influence Of Ancient Greek
Oracles on Religions / Future predictions

Humans have always sought answers of divine gods to their miseries. It was a guiding path for their actions. Formerly, the ancient Greece soothsayers observe the art of oracles to decode the signs and signals of gods. Soothsayer interpreted various natural phenomena like thunder, lightning, dreams and palmistry and gave their oracles. Contrary, many times in human history, gods did not manifest themselves instead spoke directly to the chosen people. These prophets then delivered a message to the people. Thus, the practice of predicting future owe its existence to ancient Greek oracles, where each oracle worked in his specific domain (Apollo was the soothsayer who pronounced Zeus teachings)*
