

Exploration of Cherokee

During writer's vacation, he found difficulty ~~in~~ to finalize a trip. One wanted a excited place for vacation. He was joyous when John suggested him a tour to Cherokee. They travelled to ~~Chero~~ Cherokee and visited a town Qualla Boundary surrounded by beautiful mountain scenery, and Indian village which embodying footprint of 18 century. Despite language obstacles, they managed their guideness through natives. ~~Moreover~~ Shops were filled with various stuffs over there. Moreover, they met George; ~~both were surprised~~ He surprised them with his fluent English, and told them that sometimes he had to work whole day during tour session, but that was good enough them being a woodcutter. They learnt that Cherokee does not solely rely on trade, they also try another way for survival. An additional way, 'Bring' weekend which attracts crowd to the games. George said, ~~that~~ those entertainment fetch them great returns. In last, they visited museum where different arts <sup>are</sup> displayed.