Purpose of Education

The largest of three major school of thoughts on freedom of education advocates for freedom. It believes that, despite this freedom, children are good. It limits the positive purpose of education to providing a conducive environment for spontaneous development. The writer disagrees with it. Co-operation ^{and} ~~as well as~~ science and technique, ~~are~~ are pre-requisites for living in communities. Education is a necessary minimum to learn all these. Traits that helped succeed educators of this group cannot be passed further if impulse remains unrestrained. From social perspective, beyond providing ~~relaxed~~ an environment for growth, education must equip children with mental and moral equipment.

While taking a nap on the porch one summer day, Hodga dreamed that a stranger promised to give him ten pieces of gold. The stranger placed them in Hodga's hand one by one until he reached the tenth piece, which he hesitated to give him.

"Come on, what are you waiting for?", said Hodga, "you promised me ten". Just then, he woke up. He immediately looked at his hand and saw that it was empty. He quickly shut his eyes again, stretched out his hand and said, "alright, I will settle for nine".
