

Mob Justice a threat to rule of law and social order

1 - Introduction

1.1 what is mob justice & its prevalence in modern societies

2 - Causes of Mob justice

2.1. Breakdown of Law enforcement and Judicial systems

2.2. Lack of public trust in institution

2.3. Socio-economic factors like poverty, illiteracy, unemployment

2.4. Misuse of Social Media

2.5. Cultural and religious extremism

3 - Mob Justice: A threat to rule of Law

3.1. Erosion of Judicial Authority

3.2. Undermining Legal Institution

3.3. promotion of Lawlessness

4- Mob justice: A disruption of Social order

4.1. Climate of fear and insecurity

4.2. Breakdown of Social Harmony

4.3. Impacts on social and economic development.

5- Consequence for Governance and Society

5.1. Weakening of democratic principles

5.2. Loss of Human rights protection

6- Strategies to mitigate this threat

6.1. Strengthen law enforcement and judicial system

6.2. Addressing Socio economic factor like poverty, education and employment

7- Conclusion

Mob taking the law into their own hand and punish someone without a trial and claiming innocent lives have become an alarming reality.

This trend of Mob justice pose a threat to rule of law and social order. This trend erodes trust in institutions and undermining the legal institution. The consequence of mob justice are far reaching. Social harmony is disrupting and weakening of democratic principles. To address this issue, must understand its root causes. Institutional failures, socio-economic disparities and cultural extremist all are contribute to mob justice. To mitigate this threat strength law enforcement and Judicial system for building a safe and harmonious society.