

A trip to Qualla boundary,

The author visited Qualla boundary a town in Cherokee. The town was representing old history of Cherokee with showing tribal and 19th century lifestyle of Cherokee. The author then visited souvenir shops that were full of rubber tomhawk and war bonnets.

They met George there, while having lunch with (George) him, he told the author about the ^{ways of} income ^{of} Cherokee, ^{that} despite of trading Cherokee's income depends on Bingo weekend. In the end, they visited museums, where arts, ~~(something from it)~~ of oak baskets, totem and symbol of Cherokee cosmology were displayed.

words - 110