Distortion of the purpose of new revelations

New revelations in science and psychology are <sup>accompanied</sup> ~~accompanied~~ by distortions.

In Darwin's theory of evolution, physical force was Darwin's central criterion. For psychologists, in contrast, psyche is their exclusive focus. Each of them has disregarded the ~~the~~ domain of the other. This resulted in humans who are purely driven by economic considerations and sensuous cravings.

Emergence of capitalism and communism stopped cultural evolution of humans. They are as lustful and as ignorant of purpose of life as in Stone Age. Scientists have made their inventions available to their country leaders for destruction of other people. This makes their purpose nothing more than putting humanity in a situation where it ends itself with its own inventions. This puts position of society's key stakeholders in question. Not only the purpose of creation is distorted, but <sup>also</sup> the relation between cosmos, life and human being is ~~also~~ wrongly perceived.
