

AI: The death of Creativity

Outline

A) Introduction

B) AI is the death of Creativity

i) Dependency of youth on ChatGPT and AI-based tool resulting in the loss of their problem-solving skills.

ii) Automation at the industrial sector leading toward the replacement of human labour.

iii) Reliance on the modern technologies and automated machines at the cost of peasant.

iv) AI-based content for entertainment purpose is threatening the existence of entertainment industry.

v) Overdependency on automated machines at domestic level is resulting in laziness and loss of human working skills.

vi) Teacher's reliance on AI-based content for educational purposes is compromising the critical thinking of teachers and students.

vii) Prioritizing the use of Robotics in various fields is resulting in the death of creativity and less demand for human labour.

C) Conclusion