In the opposition to confront the conventional obedient and welcoming practices to colonialistic British culture, which was promoted by British rulers, and which was adopted by Indians in that era. Both Syed Ahmad Khan and his highly dignified and enlightened son Syed Mahmood tried to adopt such character so that they are not only equal but also in rank with Britishers. In year 1867, the incident of Agra court yard was not only well determined to muslims but also to whole of Indian nation. The reason Syed Ahmad Khan has adopted separation from that court yard that the seats provided there to Indians were of lower level as compared to Britishers in that court. In that court yard, medal was to be given to Syed Ahmad Khan. Later on, this duty was given to Meersath Commissioner Williams that he should visit to Aligarh Railway station, and presents the medal to Syed Ahmad Khan there.
