

Write a précis of the following passage and also suggest a suitable title:
All the evils --- their mental health.

Laziness; ~~in the world~~ <sup>a blessing in disguise</sup>

All evils are caused by busy people, ~~but~~ <sup>for</sup> they do not know how to things done. The devil is busiest creature; he condemns laziness and become aggressive at wastage of time.

The world is disorganized and it is not due to laziness. Most people

~~have enough energy, but they are simply misguided.~~

In July 1914, everybody <sup>incorrect interpretation</sup> wanted to do nothing, just to spend time in useless activities. In this case,

~~all persons earn good than present situation. But the doctrine of hard life is unchallenged; No time must be wasted and something must be done.~~

At present time, half politicians in Europe agree that laziness is not crime and people should learn from it. Certain religious sects hold conferences, instead civilization is still uncertain because members of conferences talked about ladies skirts and dance bands. They employed better to lay flat and calm their minds.

Words in Passage = Approx. 413

Words in Précis = 145

main idea is picked and discussed but there is no coherence in the content read the passage again carefully and dont change the context
not satisfactory