

These phenomena, however, are merely premonitions of a coming storm, which is likely to sweep over the whole of India and the rest of Asia. This is the inevitable outcome of a wholly political civilization, which has looked upon man as a thing to be exploited and not as a personality to be developed and enlarged by purely cultural forces. The people of Asia are bound to rise against the acquisitive economy which the West have developed and imposed on the nations of the East. Asia cannot comprehend modern Western capitalism with its undisciplined individualism. The faith, which you represent, recognizes the worth of the individual, and disciplines him to give away all to the service of God and man. Its possibilities are not yet exhausted. It can still create a new world where the social rank of man is not determined by his caste or colour or the amount of dividend he earns, but by the kind of life he lives, where the poor tax the rich, where human society is founded not on the equality of stomachs but on the equality of spirits, where an untouchable can marry the daughter of the king, where private ownership is a trust and where capital cannot be allowed to accumulate so as to dominate that real producer of wealth. This superb idealism of your faith, however, needs emancipation from the medieval fancies of theologians and logists? Spiritually, we are living in a prison house of thoughts and emotions, which during the course of centuries we have woven round ourselves. And be it further said to the shame of us—men of older generation—that we have failed to equip the younger generation for the economic, political and even religious crisis that the present age is likely to bring. The while community needs a complete overhauling of its present mentality in order that it may again become capable of feeling the urge of fresh desires and ideals. The Indian Muslim has long ceased to explore the depths of his own inner life. The result is that he has ceased to live in the full glow and colour of life, and is consequently in danger of an unmanly compromise with force, which he is made to think he cannot vanquish in open conflict. He who desires to change an unfavourable environment must undergo a complete transformation of his inner being. God changes not the condition of a people until they themselves take the initiative to change their condition by constantly illuminating the zone of their daily activity in the light of a definite ideal. Nothing can be achieved without a firm faith in the independence of one's own inner life. This faith alone keeps a people's eye fixed on their goal and save them from perpetual vacillation. The lesson that past experiences has brought to you must be taken to heart. Expect nothing from any side. Concentrate your whole ego on yourself alone and ripen your clay into real manhood if you wish to see your aspiration realized.

Open with Google Docs

Questions:

- i. What is the chief characteristic of the modern political civilization? (4)
- ii. What are possibilities of our Faith, which can be of advantage to the world? (4)
- iii. What is the chief danger confronting the superb idealism of our Faith? (4)
- iv. Why is the Indian Muslim in danger of coming to an unmanly compromise with the Forces opposing him? (4)
- v. What is necessary for an
- vi. Explain the expression as highlighted/under lined in the passage. (5)
(not mentioned in the passage)
- vii. Suggest an appropriate title to

Q.3. Write a comprehensive note (250—300 words) on any one of the following: (20)

- a. To rob Peter to pay Paul
- b. The child is father of the man.
- c. Art lies in concealing art
- d. Life without a philosophy is like a ship without rudder
- e. A contented mind is a blessing kind.

Q.4. a. Use any FIVE of the following idioms in sentences to make their meaning clear: (5)

- i. Blow one's top
- ii. A cock and bull story
- iii. Find one's feet
- iv. Call it a night
- v. The tip of the iceberg
- vi. Below par
- vii. From pillar to post
- viii. Hang up
- ix. Turn some one in
- x. By and by

Q1) Chief characteristic of the modern political civilization involves cultural forces. A modern political civilization is driven by culture instead of a forceful imposition of another political mindset. For instance, the system imposed by the west on Asia is bound to face criticism because it does not fit in East's cultural fabric.

Q2) The possibilities of our faith which can benefit the world are many. It can help create a discrimination-free world. A place where people would be judged by the way they live their life. It can also create a world where poor tax the rich and an untouchable can marry the daughter of the king.

Q3) The chief danger confronting the superb idealism of our faith is our thoughts. We have indulged ourselves in our emotions which have thwarted the political, economic and religious resilience in young generations. There is presence of rest, a kind of mentality which would undermine the future of the young generation.

Q4) The Indian Muslims are in danger of coming to an unmanly compromise with the forces against them because they have stopped exploring ~~they~~ the inner depth of their lives. They have stopped living in full depth of colours and glow. Furthermore, these seasons have weakened the Indian Muslims and they are vulnerable to unmanly compromise with the forces.

Q5) It is necessary for an achievement to have firm faith in one's ^{inner} independent life. This faith alone keeps one determined to achieve one's goal. Moreover, past experiences must be taken to heart in order to learn from them. In order to have one's aspirations realised, one must transform into a real man and concentrate on oneself.

On one's ego transform into a real man an ago on oneself.

Q7) Title: "God helps those who help Themselves" ✓

sentence structure is satisfactory
but presentation and hand writing is very poor need improvement in expression rest is fine
9/20