

It is no doubt true that we cannot go through life without sorrow. There can be no sunshine without shade. We must not complain that roses have thorns, but rather be grateful that thorns bear flowers. Our existence here is so complex that we must expect much sorrow and much suffering. Many people distress and torment themselves about the mystery of existence.) But although a good man may at times be angry with the world, it is certain that no man was ever discontented with the world that did his duty in it. The world is a looking-glass, if you smile, it smiles, if you frown, it frowns back. If you look at it through a red glass, all seems red and rosy: if through a blue, all blue, if through a smoked one, all dull and dingy.) Always try then to look at the bright side of things, almost everything in the world has a bright side. (There are some persons whose smile, the sound of whose voice, whose very presence seems like a ray of sunshine and brightens a whole room.) Greet everybody with a bright smile, kind words and a pleasant welcome. It is not enough to love those who are near and dear to us. We must show that we do so. While, however, we should be grateful, and enjoy to the full the innumerable blessings of life, we cannot expect to have no sorrows or anxieties. Life has been described as a comedy to those who think, and a tragedy to those feel. It is indeed a tragedy at times and a comedy very often, but as a rule; it is what we choose to make it. No evil, said Socrates, can happen to a Goodman, either in Life or Death. -

Optimistic View about life

One cannot expect life without sorrows because these are part of life. A good man never dissatisfied with the world. The world is like a mirror, it gives you what you give it; smile or frown. One should have an optimistic view. There are some persons whose personality has a very positive impact. One should be very courteous to everyone not only to loved ones. One should be thankful for the blessings of life and expect it with sorrows. Life becomes as we want to make it, it feels tragic to emotional people but funny to logical thinkers. As Socrates said, an optimistic man bears no pain, either in life or death.
