Expanding Information Technology: a blessing or a cur

Thesis Statement: Information Technology has become the foremost part of human life and can be considered as a blessing. However, the facts are proving that expanding information technology is a curse.

Outline :

1) Introduction

2) Expanding Information Technology is a Curse:

    a- Social Insecurity.
        - Cybercrimes
        - No privacy

Avoid sweeping statements

    b- Health issues
        - addictiveness
        - mental health compromises, improper sleep.
        - inferiority complex

    c. Ethical issues
        - harassment and bullying.

    d- Educational curse
        - overuse of ChatGPT

    e- Religious issues
        - increase in Blasphemy cases
        - unauthentic information

    f- Economical Dependance.
        - business loss: incase of internet loss.

g. Environmental curse
  - deforestation for installing network towers.

h. Political Curse
  - political gains : spying and hacking.

3. Expanding Information Technology contemplated as a blessing:
  - online education.
  - social connectivity.

4. Conclusion.

Give remedial measures to counter it's curses

*kindly give numbers as well.

Make phrases instead of writing a single word
Bring further maturity in your arguments