Avoid headings.

Reading Comprehension 2024

(1) Main Theme of the Passage:

The main theme of the passage is centred on the relationship between humanity and technology. The expansion of global digital landscape puts pressure on educators for ethical checks. A balanced relation between humans and machines lie at the centre [lies] of discussion.

(2) Educational Adaptation:

Education adapts to expansion of digital horizon through E-Learning platforms and virtual classrooms. It empowers learners worldwide by democratization of information and access to digital platforms for all. However, It poses the challenge to traditional hierarchies because of boundless available sources.

(3) Digital Divide:

The Concept of Digital divide is one that separates those with access to technology with those who do have the access. In this regards, inclusivity is essential for collective growth of society. Educators must induce sense of responsibility and ethical conduct for formulation of inclusive policies in digital realm.

(4) Technology and Ethics:

Artificial Intelligence blurs boundaries between humans and machine. The incorporation of AI in societal level decision-making demands ethical consideration and highlights significance of transparency. The evolution of technology intersects with ethics in the society.

(5) Message:

The message and societal responsibility revolves around embracing advances of technology with an ethical and mindful approach. Progress can align with principles of equity, inclusivity and ethics if the society promises to uphold technology with wisdom as a collective responsibility and minimize its misuse.

9/20