

US Hist 2021 Intros Only

QUESTION 4

As the largest and bloodiest conflict.....

ANSWER 4

1 INTRODUCTION

Civil war of America is one of the deadliest conflict fought on American soil. Throughout history civil war has been known for reasons like the abolishment of slavery and black rights.

However, many intricacies got ignored in the foot notes. The hispanic involvement in war and the repercussions that had to be faced by them are often ignored. The sizeable hispanic population played a very important role in the war as they were involved on both sides of the conflict. The community faced economic backlash, social division and displacement.

This paragraph isn't coherent or aligned. It needs an addition of a coherent manner of writing, an expression that goes on but still could seem as an opening of question's statement.

QUESTION 5

How Seneca Falls convention of 1848.....

ANSWER 5

1 INTRODUCTION

The Seneca Falls convention is recognized as the ground breaking moment in the course of American Feminist History. The convention sparked a wave for a demand of equal political rights in the country. Even though the 19th amendment and the right to vote was granted to women in 1920, any attribute the success to the Seneca Falls convention and the 'Declaration of Rights and Sentiments'. It is true that the convention is the pioneer of the suffrage movement, however, there were also other conducive global happenings that eventually led to women's right to vote.

Concise it!

QUESTION 6

New US India Policy will pave way.....

ANSWER 6

1

INTRODUCTION

"Friendship between Moscow and Islamabad in reality is the closeness between Delhi and Washington"

- Ayesha Jalal

The greater global game is changing. The way countries interacted with each other prior to this. China's rise is an acknowledged reality and for regional curtailment, USA's most viable option is India. This recent affair, however, craves out many other relations; Pakistan-India debacle is nothing new, neither are the thorny interactions between China and India. Similarly, Russia's entire Concise it!

Do not enlist

Try not to cut!

Foreign policy is anti-US. In a series of of linked up friendships and enmities, defacto block formation is done. Any party, whether it be US or Sino-Russia alliance, can not have India and Pakistan both. While US decides to pick India, Pakistan sides with its Iron brother China.

Add concluding remarks

Question 7 INTRODUCTION

US Foreign policy post world war 2 has shifted from isolation to alliance system. Since then, US has focused on alliance system.

Soon after the world war, the cold war theatre begin which worked primarily on the system of alliances instead of direct confrontational war.

Economic