The writer to not fall into that trap; he could save himself by watching Palestine art in the world cinemas. The writer states that Hassan documentary shows Israel intrusion into Palestine rights. It also depicts Palestine art in an admirable way. Hence, the film is a bit longer and reader could watch its shorter version on Aljazeera Arabic broadcast.

It is a bit long. Precis should be one third of the passage.

Poor title.

Art: Awakening Consciousness

Nizar Hassan who was born and raised in the village of Mashhad, near Nazareth. He completed graduation in anthropology and started work in TV. In 1994, he produced a film named "Independence" in which he portrayed Palestinian interlocutors who talked about Israel's notion of "Independence". Moreover, when the world was busy in talking about Israel's annexation plan of more Palestinian lands, the writer received an email from Hassan about his latest film titled "My Grandfather Path". The film represents the notion of choose your enemies wisely otherwise you would become like them. Likewise, if the writer are exposed to Israel's daily brutality of Palestinian armed robbery and he got infuriated; he would promptly forget about his dreams and would become like them. He suggested
