

Crisis of Good Governance in Pakistan: Need for reforms and institution building.

Focus on proper deconstruction of the topic

Outline

(a) = Introduction

= Causes of Crisis of Good Governance

(1) Issue of Rampant Corruption

(2) Issue of Political Instability

(3) Politicization of Institutions

(4) Issue of Unemployment and Poverty

(5) Issue of illiteracy of People

(6) Less Spending on Social Sector

= Feudalism has Played

(7) Role of Feudalism in Crisis
of Good Governance

(8) National Leaders Prefer to Personal Interests <sup>over the</sup> ~~other~~ Than

National Interest

Irrelevant details

DATE: 1/2024

= How to Reform <sup>address</sup> Crisis
of Good Governance

- 1) Initiation of Check and Balance System
- 2) Implementation of Rule ~~and~~ Law
- 3) Eradication of Political Instability and Introduce Political Stability
- 4) Depoliticisation of Institutions
- 5) Eradication of Issue of Unemployment and Poverty
- 6) Spend on Social sectors and Education
- 7) Elimination of Feudalism
- 8) National Interests must be Prioritized

= Conclusions

Introduction

~~Crisis of good gov~~

Crisis of Good Governance has vitiated the progress of economic, Political and democratic norms. Pakistan has been finding out good governance model since <sup>for</sup> seventy years but it is still failed. Mass level corruption, Political instability

, unemployment and illiteracy has played their role in weakening good governance of Pakistan.

Lack of budget for social sector

, feudalism also weakened it.

Good governance can play its role in stabilizing country.

Good governance can be achieved by enforcement of law and a system of check and balance and depoliticization of institutions.

Eradication of unemployment, Poverty and eradication of feudalism can be helpful in strengthening good governance. Hence to sum it up, good governance can be achieved by adopting these measures.

Corruption shakes the foundations of the institutions. Quaid-e-Azam delivered his speech and in Peshawar college and urged to abstain from corruption. No country can make a good progress with corruption. According to a report by Transparency International Corruption Index Pakistan is 140 number out of 180 countries. To sum it up good governance can be achieved by elimination of corruption.