

Political Polarization; Governance and Society

Outline

A) Introduction

B) Governance impacting Society due to political polarization:

- i) People's lack of trust in public institutions.
- ii) Increase in the rates of crime in the society.
- iii) Pessimism and unrest among the people.
- iv) Brain drain of people that leads toward migration.
- v) Lack of skill development in the society.
- vi) No effectiveness in health and education of people.

C) Society influencing governance due to political polarization:

- i) Corruption in the governing institutions

ii) Absence of law and order.

iii) Weak and ineffective institutions

iv) No advancement in technological sector.

v) No effective environmental policies.

vi) Ineffective management of energy crisis.

vii) Less focus on human capital development.

D) Conclusion.

The topic has not been properly deconstructed