Q. NO. 1

Write Precis and Suggest a Suitable Title :-

Uninformed and misguided individuals often unintentionally spread harm and evil in this world. As they are the ones who are actively participating in the world too. Just as Devil is the most busiest creature of this world.

Therefore, the world is stuck in a quagmire due to the use of energy in the wrong direction. The world would have been a better place if the previous kings, leaders, or journalists had spent their time resting in sunshine rather than working on any difficult doctrine. Moreover, rather than going on a peace conference, they should have taken a good trip in any mountainous area. Contemporarily, if the European politicians stop considering laziness as something bad and take rest for a while, then that would be a blessing too. Adding to this, some religious sect members should also take some rest to refresh their minds.
