

1993

Schumacher Opinion Over Intellectual Aid

In Schumacher's opinion, intellectual aid is far better than a material gift. A gift of knowledge makes an individual independent. While on the other hand, the material gift makes an individual dependent. Additionally, to achieve gift of knowledge a recipient needs to put an effort to achieve it genuinely. However, the case of material ^{gift} is opposite of it.