

Real development should transform people's lives, not just economic indicators

Outline

1. Introduction.

2. Transforming lives' of people through development

3. How development can improve people's lives'?

3 (a) alleviating poverty by providing basic necessities of living.

3 (b). combating climate change to reduce threat surface of climate-induced disasters.

3 (c). providing greater access <sup>to</sup> education by implementing educational policy.

3 (d) promoting gender equality of inclusive growth.

3 (e). minimizing rural-urban divide by equitable distribution of resources.

3 (f). creating employment opportunities to reduce brain drain.

3 (g) implementing stringent security measure to counter terrorism.

3 (b) Bringing institutional reforms to implement rule of Law.

4. Factors that hinders development.

4 (a). absence of policy making.

4 (b). prevalence of terrorism.

4 (c) competent leadership.

4 (d). scarcity of financial resources.

4 (e). political polarization.

5. Wayforward.

6. Conclusion.