

Comprehension Test #2

Q#1 Instead of making machines our servants the author says they have become our masters. In what sense has this come about?

~~Ans: Machines have become our masters, instead of making them our servants. Through this phrase author emphasizing on the fact, that we have become so ~~how much we are~~ dependent on these machines. That they are start ruling us, we have to ^{care} take of these machines in a very precise manner so they keep working for long time.~~

Ans: The author emphasizing on the fact through his phrase, that human's become so dependend on these machines. That they are start ruling us, an individual cannot imagine their daily tasks without the use of machines.

Q # 2 The use of machines has brought us more leisure and more energy. But the author says that this has been a curse rather than a blessing. Why?

Ans: Indeed, the use of machine has brought us more free time and energy. As most of our work is done by these machines. But at the same time ^{it} is a curse rather than a blessing, because it makes human less active in ^{ability to work} work. And if the machines are not taken care well, they will become the cause of destruction.

Q # 3 What is the meaning of civilization?
Do you agree with the author's views?

Ans: Civilization can be defined as a society where people have their own culture, language. The society with the technology, state and consist of state and social system. Yes, as the author is trying to make this institute a better place by making and enjoying beautiful things.

Question

Q#4 Making more beautiful things - what does this expression mean? make a list of the beautiful things that you would like to make and how you would make them.

Ans: By the expression, making more beautiful things meant with the help of machines we try to make our society a better place. when it comes to justice, ^{and} living, education and many more things. The list of beautiful things that I like to make ^{is} promoting justice, peace in the world, Reliving education,

Q#5 mention some plans you may have to prevent poverty in the world. who would receive your most particular attention and why?

A) Poverty can be reduced in the world, by distributing resources among people equally Empowering people with skills and returning industrial sector in order so the people can work independently. And gradually with all these reforms in social sector it eventually help people to move out of poverty.

The policy makers, local governments should work together to reach this particular goal.