

Essay: Education and Extremism

Outline

1 Introduction

Thesis Statement: Extremism has been emerging continuously due to lack of education system. There are numerous historical, religious and political factors which posed threat to human being. As every cloud has a silver lining, Pakistan can combat against extremism through decent education system.

2 What is Extremism ?

3 What is relationship between education and extremism ?

4. What are the reasons of extremism due to lack of education system ?

i) Madrasah system develops extremists thoughts.

- (ii) Education Powerful Political Leaders are using education as a tool for personal interests.
- (iii) Pedagogical method is not applying within education sector.
- (iv) Education sector is suffering due to fixed memory based assessment system.
- (v) Education sector is unable to provide decent livelihood.

5

What are the impacts of extremism due to Lack of education.

- (i) It ignited social unrest.
- (ii) It created terrorism.
- (iii) It posed threat to Political stability.
- (iv) It contributed in economic crisis.
- (v) It developed rifts in Pakistan's relationship with developed countries.

6 What are the wayforwards to combat against extremism through decent education ?

- (i) Pakistan has to apply proper pedagogical method.
- (ii) Education has to revisit curricula to eliminate extremist material.
- (iii) Government should emphasis on learning objective which is aim of education.
- (iv) Pakistan has to introduce critical thinking based assessment system
- (v) Government must increase budget for education to provide decent education.

6 Conclusion

"Some education systems perpetuate radicalization, fostering a culture of intolerance." -

Adrey Azouly. In the history of the world, several powerful people came with the personal opinions, thoughts and actions. They also used social institutions to develop mindset according to their will. Many of them used education as a tool to gain personal interests through spreading extremists thoughts. Therefore, extremism has been emerging continuously due to lack of education system. There are numerous historical, religious, and political factors which posed threat to human being. As every cloud has silver lining, Pakistan can combat against extremism through decent education system. To examine the leading causes of extremism, this essay will prove that how education system is providing extremist thoughts.

Moreover, this discussion will provide mention that what are the historical, religious and political causes which incite extremism. On the historical and current context, this essay will elaborate with effective evidences. Furthermore, this essay will shift towards numerous impacts of extremism. How it can pose to survival of a country and how it can create social unrest, security threats within a country. Not only this but also this dialogue will turn to address these challenges by introducing needs and aim of education within education sector. What measures must be taken to eliminate this curse. What initiatives must implement to eradicate extremists thoughts. According to current circumstances, this discussion will cover the needs and requirements of education systems and how can education system offer peaceful society.