

poverty build characters , poverty and poor people poverty sharpens people intellectually and morally. Moreover, tough tasks give happiness to the determined people. In the history proves that poor people are courageous, honest and charitable. And poverty is respectable while the misery is degradable because of idleness.

Therefore , poor people are more happier than rich but they do not want to remain among these people.

Date: _____

Day: _____

The railway system in Europe suffers many technical issues that produce hindrance in the smooth functioning of service. The issues of system range from difference in structure of railway stations. The officers should look out these constraints and try to remove them. However, the feeling of nationalism in these countries people is big hurdle in this regard.

Title: The railway system in Europe and Nationalism.